Camp 1

When Carl wants to run away from home, he tries to get a job with the mysterious Professor Pinecone and his traveling magical marionette puppet show. He quickly discovers, however, that the position comes with all kinds of strings attached. Once he feels the magical jolt in Professor Pinecone's handshake, he begins the audition of his life. With the help of this eclectic cast, Pinocchio stumbles upon life's lessons as he learns, through a series of hilarious mishaps and wrong turns, that his actions have repercussions. He even makes a donkey of himself... literally! With a little help from Tina Tuna, Pinocchio makes a selfless choice by saving Geppetto from the mouth of a giant shark!

Camp 2

C'mon, brothers and sisters! Everything's groovy! So join Travis, Muriel and Alice on their hip journey to bring together the Music, Beads and Flowers Celebration. They call upon the popular singing group, The Lemon Bugs, who love the idea. When the message goes out that The Bugs will donate their talent, crazily-painted busses start arriving at Crumb's Apple Farm, the site of the festival. Everything is cool until Mrs. Porter, who hates "The Love Generation," arrives and demands that the local police shut down the happening. To make matters even worse, two music promoters offer the Lemon Bugs a deal they can't refuse if they will skip the celebration.

July 13-24, 2009

Camp 3

Throw out your fairy-tale ideas of a Cinderella with dainty glass slippers and hideous stepsisters—this unique and hilarious adaptation has a new twist! In an English village in 1342, Cinderella, a plain looking girl with big feet, has to compete with her two mean-spirited but stunningly gorgeous stepsisters for the hand of the kind and sincere prince. With the help of her faithful feline companion, Tom, and a lovable but vision-impaired Fairy Godmother who's always using the wrong wand, Cinderella finally learns that magic isn't the answer to her problems.
